Thank you for your interest in membership to the Rotary Club of the Lowcountry.

About Our Club

We are a very vibrant club that is active in the Beaufort Community. Our club offers opportunities for those interested in making a difference, to get involved. Along with these opportunities to serve, members are also able to regularly network, resulting in lifelong friendships and business connections. ### Membership Application Process

Now that you have been invited and are interested in joining Rotary, it is time to apply for membership in our club. Please complete the following application and return to your sponsor (club member who invited you). Once your application has been processed by club personnel, the membership chair will contact you to notify you of the results.

Once your application has been approved, you will be asked to participate in a new member orientation known as a "Fireside Chat". This informal meeting with club leadership personnel is designed to provide you with additional information about your membership in Rotary. We encourage you to ask questions and come ready to get involved.

The last step of your application process is your formal induction into the club. Your induction into the club is a formal acceptance of the ideals and responsibilities of Rotary. You are welcome to invite any family members you wish to be present for this ceremony.
